

The Community Registry: an Unexpected Journey?

Doug Matthews
Chief Communications Director
City of Austin, Texas

Why I'm Here

The Community Registry is...

- a priority for certain sectors in the city.
- a key opportunity identified by the Task Force on Community Engagement.
- an important tool for departments trying to reach neighborhoods.
- well beyond its useful life.
- suffers from an identity crisis.
- Cold Fusion.

Why I'm Here

The Community Registry could be...

- a comprehensive “self-service” directory of community-based organizations.
- a tool to link the City with people and organizations, both for notifications and for community engagement.
- a way to “democratize” access to notifications.
- an easy-to-use, self-guided registration tool.
- not Cold Fusion.

The journey as we know it
